

tradfest

EDINBURGH • DÙN ÈIDEANN

About Ingried's performance during the TradFest 2017:

This was followed by one of the discoveries of the festival for me. Journey To Alba was performed in the intimate space of the centre's library by Ingried Boussaroque, a young Canadian relating her journey from the island of Montreal to the Hebridean island of Barra with a selection of Quebec, Gaelic and Scottish songs, accompanying herself on the Finnish instrument, the kantele.

Neil Hedgeland